

so they could explain to me how they provided for gridlock in the last session so I would be better at gridlock this session.

You are now 6 days late on the budget. In the last 2 years, we have had the budget on time. It was due April 1. It is due out here, by both Houses, on April 15. We hear all this moaning and groaning and crocodile tears as it relates to we will not do that; we want to start saving; we want to start saving—but we have a budget that is due to put us on the track to 2002 and you are 5 days late, and we are not going to get it probably until May.

I say to my friend, let us get a budget out here. Let us really start doing things.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The time of the Senator has expired.

Mr. DOLE. Mr. President, if I could proceed for 1 moment—1 minute?

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. DOLE. Mr. President, I still hope we can work this out. We were about that close, or closer. The Democratic leader and the Republican leader worked throughout the day with other Senators on both sides. We thought we had an agreement.

We thought we had an agreement. I still hope it is possible to get the agreement. If that happens, we could finish our work very quickly today and there would be no votes tomorrow or Saturday. But if not, then I do not think we have any other choice other than to try to complete this bill tonight with or without cloture.

So I still think there is a genesis of an agreement here. I would say to the White House, I hope that you will help us reach an agreement, because, until there is an agreement, there will not be any defense supplemental taken up in this body.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Under the previous order, the hour of 2 p.m. having arrived, the clerk will report the motion to invoke cloture.

CLOTURE MOTION

Mr. DOLE. Mr. President, I send a cloture motion to the desk.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will report.

The legislative clerk read as follows:

CLOTURE MOTION

We, the undersigned Senators, in accordance with the provisions of rule XXII of the Standing Rules of the Senate do hereby move to bring to a close debate on the Hatfield amendment No. 420 to H.R. 1158, the supplemental appropriations bill:

Bob Dole, Fred Thompson, Rick Santorum, Alfonse D'Amato, Chuck Grassley, Trent Lott, Larry Craig, Connie Mack, Craig Thomas, Jesse Helms, John H. Chafee, Thad Cochran, Mark Hatfield, Pete Domenici, Dan Coats, and Judd Gregg.

Mr. DOLE. Mr. President, let me indicate to the distinguished Democratic leader, who is on the floor, it is still my hope that we can reach some agreement. It seems to me we are not that far apart. We ought to be able to do it.

I am certainly prepared to sit down with the Democratic leader, or anyone else, if there is a problem. But, just in case we cannot work it out, then I have filed a cloture motion, because I do think it is important that we finish this bill so we can take up the defense supplemental bill and some other things after that.

But I am prepared and I think the Democratic leader is prepared and, hopefully, our colleagues are prepared. It seems to me we have one of two choices. Either we try to finish this tonight with no votes tomorrow, or we will be here tonight and tomorrow and maybe Saturday. But, that is up to our colleagues. I cannot believe any of these amendments are so critical they cannot wait until the next supplemental or until the appropriations bills start arriving.

I think there was a lot of give and take on each side in good faith. I thought we were almost there. But if we make an agreement and everybody says, "Well, I will make the agreement but I want to go back and offer an amendment to try to undo the agreement," then we do not have an agreement. Either we have an agreement or we do not have an agreement.

I can agree, if you let me have 25 chances to improve on what I have already agreed upon, but I do not think that is an agreement.

I hope that we can resolve everything so that, when it comes to the floor, I can persuade the Senator from New York to withdraw the amendment with reference to Mexico. He has not done that yet. We have the Jordan aid in this package that I know the administration is very concerned about.

So I hope there would be some way to bring it together in the next, say, 45 minutes to an hour.

I also remind my colleagues on this side of the aisle, there is a Republican conference in progress in S. 207 which will end, hopefully, at 3 o'clock.

I am happy to yield the floor or yield to my colleague from South Dakota.

Mr. DASCHLE addressed the Chair.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The minority leader.

Mr. DASCHLE. Mr. President, as I said before the vote, it was not our desire to hold up this bill. I will reiterate my sincere desire to work with the majority leader in finding an agreement.

What I hope we might be able to do, perhaps, is to maybe run two tracks, get some debate and offer some of these amendments. We could maybe work out some short time agreements and have a good debate, rather than just putting the Senate in a quorum call,
